Dear Sir:-

It is the desire of Mr Cosskam the bearer of this while on his visit to the United States, to see our oldest and first abolitionists.

Taking license from my slight personal acquaintance with you, and intimate knowledge of your personal character, and public standing, I have the pleasure to introduce Charles Cosskam Esquire
one of the best of the English abolitionists, friend and associate of J. Joseph Sturge, Geo.
Thompson, and many other good men

I anticipate you both will have much pleasure in a personal acquaintance.

I am sir very truly yours

J. Eastman
